

1999 Sand Dollar Award winners

CBIA gives awards during ceremony

The Sales & Marketing Council of the Collier Building Industry Association named the winners of the Ninth Annual Sand Dollar Awards last night, in front of a sold-out audience of 660 attendees at The Ritz-Carlton, Naples.

The awards recognizes excellence in building, development, landscape design, interior design and advertising and marketing. The Sand Dollar Award is bestowed on members of the building industry.

Twenty-five judges, all members of building industries from around the state, are brought in for two days of judging. Entries are ranked by a point system and final scores are tabulated by Sun-Trust Bank officials.

"The Sand Dollar Awards grow in size and scope every year," said Lisa Peteler, the event chairperson. "We broke a lot of records with this year's competition. We had 223 entrants in 64 categories, the most ever. In addition, we doubled our sponsorship dollars from last year, which allowed us to produce the most elaborate banquet to date. We had 500 people signed up to attend the banquet before the invitations were even mailed out..."

The 1999 Sand Dollar winner for Product Design Of The Year Single Family Home $600,001-$800,000 was Petra of Naples Ltd. for The Corinthian

The Corinthian also won Best Interior Merchandising Single Family Home $600,001-$800,000.

The Corinthian model was honored with a Sand Dollar Award for Best Interior Merchandising.

The Corinthian model was honored with a Sand Dollar Award for Best Interior Merchandising.